1. Newly presented claims 17 through 20 are directed to a system for detachably connecting a card processing mechanism and a card processing machine and are not directed to the invention elected as result of the requirement for restriction mailed 8 June 2006 to which applicant responded with an election on 7 July 2006. Accordingly, claims 17 through 20 have been withdrawn from consideration.

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

4. Claims 1 through 3, 6, 7, 9 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kobayashi '058 in view of Gilliam et al.

Kobayashi '058 teaches a card reorienting mechanism having everything including a chassis 10 with an electric motor mounted thereon to rotate a card reorienting device (see Figs. 1(A), 1(B) and 2), but not having a fastenerless mechanism connecting the chassis to the card processing machine.

Gilliam et al teaches a fastenerless mechanism comprising a snap-fit connection system (see Figs. 1 and 2) for connecting housing members together.

In view of the teachings of Gilliam et al, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide the housing members (the chassis and the housing of the card processing machine) of Kobayashi '058 with a fastenerless snap-fit connection system in order to provide a secure connection between the elements.

5. Claims 4, 5 and 8 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 3, 6, 7 and 9 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to David H. Bollinger whose telephone number is 571-272-6935. The examiner can normally be reached on Tuesday through Friday from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm. The examiner can also be reached on alternate Mondays from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Patrick Mackey, can be reached on 571-272-6916. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
